

Developing Restorative Practice in County Wexford

organised by
Wexford Restorative Practices Partnership

A conference to be held on Wednesday 12th October from 10.00 to 16.00

The conference takes place in the Riverside Park Hotel Enniscorthy, County Wexford and a light lunch will be provided

Who is the conference for?

Those interested in developing Restorative Practice in County Wexford and involved in any of the following areas:

- Education
- Young People and Family Services
- Criminal Justice
- Community Development

Why is the conference being organised?

Wexford Restorative Practices Partnership (WRPP) grew out of an action included in the overall plan for the county by County Wexford Children and Young People's Services Committee (CYPSC). This action calls for the development of Restorative Practices on a county-wide basis. This conference is being hosted by WRPP to further this objective.

Guest speakers

Claire Casey is the restorative practices programme coordinator at the Tallaght Childhood Development Initiative and a skilled trainer and practitioner in RP.

Inspector Andy Tuite is attached to the Garda National Crime Diversion office and a practitioner and trainer in RP.

Frank Murphy is a school principle in Wexford and a tutor in leadership, development and restorative practice.

What is Restorative Practice?

The use of restorative practice helps to:

- Reduce crime, violence and bullying.
- Improve human behaviour.
- Strengthen civil society.
- Provide effective leadership.
- Restore relationships.
- Repair harm.
